AUXILIARY PRESIDENT

Where has the year gone?? November and December are busy months for all of us but we still need to be thinking of our Auxiliary programs as this time of year especially is a time of giving and helping those in need,

This year our Unit received “many” awards from the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Maryland for our programs for our veterans, community, education etc. We should be proud of the awards but that is not what we work for, it is how we help our vets and community that makes us proud!!

This year Mt. Hope Cemetery in Woodsboro is sponsoring Wreaths Across America on December 14 at noon. Wreaths Across America was formed in 2007 placing wreaths on veterans graves to “remember and honor our fallen veterans”, Volunteers will be needed (more info will be provided at our meeting or by an email post).

Special thanks to the Olde Towne Restaurant in Woodsboro for collecting and transporting needed items to the hurricane victims in North Carolina-and to all that donated. By the way - their pancakes are the best :)

We still need volunteers to work on Children and Youth and Community Service committees.

If you have not paid your dues please do.

Cookies are needed for the Childrens Christmas party on December 14th.

Next District Meeting 11/24 Sykesville Unit 223.

Unit meetings - November 25th- 7:00 and December 16th - 6:30 (this is our Christmas party and if you would like to participate in the gift exchange please bring a wrapped gift)

Please keep our veterans in your thoughts and prayers.

Valarie
Auxiliary President
